

Short Overview of Wisconsin Conference Process to Call a Pastor

This sheet is intended as a condensed overview of the typical search process and highlights the major steps. It is not intended as information on the full process or the process your congregation may be invited to participate in. Crucial in the discernment of the search process will be conversation between your church and your ACM as your present pastor leaves and your church enters ministerial transition.